Kia Ora Parents/Whanau

Welcome to our new children and their whanau:

This week the school farewelled, with great sadness, one of our Year 6 girls, Anahera Herewini, who passed away on Sunday. Anahera was a delightful young lady who embodied the Crawshaw values; she was a credit to her family. Last year she was the recipient of the FYD Positive Young Stars Award. She will be sorely missed. Our thoughts continue to be with her parents Ngapipi and Anthony and siblings, Tiakitia and Te Ahu.

I'm sure you will also join us in sending condolences to Susan Hohua, one of our cleaners, whose husband, Monty, passed away yesterday. Our thoughts are with her. The fourth term is always a very busy term and classes have lots of great learning planned. Matua Stuart will be running "Reading Together" to help explain the learning to read process and how whanau can help with this. Teachers of Junior classes will be arranging times to report to you on your children's progress and Senior class teachers will report on 9th and 10th December.

There is training for athletics and trips being planned for science and technology. And of course, both Kapa Haka teams are competing.

Any parents who cannot make the Hauraki Cultural Festival on Saturday are warmly invited to attend the dress rehearsal of the Junior Kapa Haka team at 11.00 tomorrow.

Grandparent's Day is next week and I know the tamariki are looking forward to entertaining their grandparents and showing their work. The day will start with a cuppa at 10.30am and then grandparents can join their moko in their classes.

Nga mihi
