Crawshaw School Newsletter Term Three, Week Six 30 August, 2018

Kia Ora Whanau,

Between showers our tamariki have been practicing hard for tomorrow's Cross Country. They are building up stamina and resilience and learning about not giving up even when things get hard. In fact everything is hard until it is easy! We would love you to come along and support them tomorrow. If you can help marshalling the track I'm sure that Whaea Vicki would love to hear from you first thing tomorrow. Ages 8-13 will run in the morning at 9.00am and the 5-7 year olds will run at 11.40am.

I am pleased to announce that a new Social Worker in Schools has been appointed and will begin work early Term 4. I look forward to introducing her to you.

St Vincent De Paul who provided lunches for children in schools all over the Waikato have ask if anyone could kindly donate any marmite or peanut butter to help. They provide a great service for us. Bring any donations to the office and we will hand them on.

Nga mihi,
Jill Littlewood
